

MyChart™ Network Participating Sites

As of March 1st, 2018

This table outlines what types of clinical data each participating organization makes available in MyChart

Organization Name	Facility	Data Availability	Appointments	Blood Bank	Clinical Notes / Transcription	Labs	Medical Imaging Reports	Microbiology	Pathology	Other Tests
Baycrest Health Sciences
Lakeridge Health	Ajax Pickering Hospital (coming soon)	March 27, 2018 and onwards
	Bowmanville Hospital (coming soon)
	Oshawa Hospital (coming soon)
	Whitby Hospital (coming soon)
Michael Garron Hospital (formerly Toronto East General Hospital)		July 5, 2016 and onwards
Our Shared Purpose	St. Joseph's Hospital (coming soon)	January 1, 2016 and onwards
	St. Michael's Hospital (coming soon)
Sinai Health System	Bridgepoint Health (coming soon)	January 1, 2014 and onwards
	Mount Sinai Hospital
Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre	Bayview Campus	1996 and onwards					X
	The Holland Centre						X
	St. John's Rehab Hospital						X
The Ottawa Hospital		October 1, 2016 and onwards
The University of Ottawa Heart Institute		June 1, 2014 and onwards
West Park Healthcare Centre (coming soon)
William Osler Health System	Brampton Civic Hospital	April 21, 2016 and onwards
	Etobicoke General Hospital
	Peel Memorial Hospital

X indicates that images are available (Medical Imaging)

MyChart is also partnered with Ontario's Ministry of Health. In 2018 users will be able to access their provincial lab data originating from the Ontario Laboratories Information System (OLIS), and also their community medications from the province's electronic repository of dispensed drugs and pharmacy services, known to healthcare providers as the Digital Health Drug Repository (DHDR).